MEETING FIRST TUESDAY EACH MONTH, 8 P. M.

July 27, 1945

A special meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was held in the office of Charles F. McKay, Jr. on 62nd Street and Central Avenue. The purpose of the meeting was to start proceedings against the Eastern Avenue Corporation for cutting streets in the town without authorization.

On the motion of Councilman Wells and seconded by Councilman Fominaya and carried, Town Counsel McKay was instructed to file an injunction against the Eastern Avenue Corporation who refused to heed the warnings of the Council to stop their project of cutting 62nd Place ~~Street~~ through to Foote Street. It was necessary for $1,000 bond to be posted by some citizen and Mayor Van Moreland and Clerk J. Theodore Crown signed the bond for $1,000. However, the Mayor and Common Council agreed to reimburse or accept any damages that might be granted by a court as a result of the injunction. The meeting adjourned at 8:30.
